In an era where we seem to be increasingly divided along racial lines, many are hesitant to step into the gap, fearful of saying or doing the wrong thing. At times the silence, particularly within the church, seems deafening. Change begins with an honest conversation, willing to give a voice to unspoken hurts, hidden fears, and mounting tensions. In this perspective-shifting book, Latasha Morrison shows how we can participate in this incredible work. She applies biblical principles, such as lamentation, confession, and forgiveness, to lay the framework for restoration.
